BREAK IS LOOMING UP ACROSS WATER

Turkey Not Willing to Part With City of Adrianople.

HOSTILITIES MAY BE RESUMED

Grecian Envoy Declares the Alliance Between the Balkan States Is as Firm as When the First Shot Was Fired at the Turks—Allies Have Raised Fresh War Loans and Are In Shipshape to Continue the War.

London, Dec. 17. — If Turkey will not surrender Adrianople, the allies will resume the war on the eve of the peace conference. M. Venizelos, premier of Greece, the chief figure of the Balkan envoys, made this statement.
He said that the coalition is as firm as when the allies fired the first shot at Turkish troops.

"The allies," he continued, "will demand the surrender of Adrianople and Janina as well as the rest of the territory conquered. Turkey, I understand, is determined not to yield to this demand, and unless one gives way it is practically certain that the conference will be a failure and the war will be resumed. The allies are quite prepared for such a result. Both Greece and Serbia will send their armies to aid Bulgaria at Tchatalja, and in the ultimate capture of Constantinople. We have raised fresh loans recently and have plenty of money to conduct the war."

The envoys came to the palace of St. James for a perfunctory sitting.
There was but a small crowd in the streets as the envoys drove up.

Sir Edward Grey had hardly finished his address of welcome, in which he spoke of the benefits of the peace that was to follow the conference, when there was a squabble.

As soon as Sir Edward left the room the head of the Turkish delegation arose to say that the Ottoman representatives were not satisfied to have a Serbian preside at the conference. M. Venizelos had been asked to preside, but he withdrew in favor of a Serbian. The Turks said that they were not willing to have a Serb preside, and it was finally decided after long argument that each delegation should preside in turn, and in alphabetical order.

After the session the Greek envoys gave out the following: "We have received no official information as to whether Turkey will protest against Greece participating in the conference, though there are many rumors.
The allies, however, are united and will insist that Greece be considered with the rest. We have not signed the armistice because we wanted Janina, and it will have to be taken by force before we would be in a position to cease fighting, since the surrender of Janina is an important feature of our demands in connection with peace."

That Naval Engagement.

London, Dec. 17.—A dispatch from Athens says that Greek and Turkish warships engaged in a naval combat between Imbros and the Dardanelles.
The Turkish fleet was protected by the forts during the engagement, but the Greeks forced them to retire in disorder. The Greek fleet, which remained complete, continues to cruise in the vicinity. The victory resulted in Greek casualties of only five wounded.

Messina, Italy, Dec. 17.—A freight train and an express train collided near Catania. The number and the nationality of the victims are still unknown. One report places the death list at 25, and so far the bodies of 15 persons have been extricated from the debris. It is believed that English passengers from Taormina were aboard the wrecked passenger train.
Detachments of troops are now engaged in the rescue work.

Wounded Turks, Aeroplane
And House Looted In War

Photos by American Press Association.

THESE views are actual scenes from the front, taken during the height of the Balkan war. At the top are shown wounded Turks on hospital cots. They were among the more fortunate of the defeated soldiers.
They escaped the dread cholera. The middle picture is of a Bulgarian army aeroplane which came down nose first into the ground after a successful flight around Adrianople. The aviator was not hurt. At the bottom is a house looted and practically torn apart by Turkish soldiers.

Work of the Ohio Legislative Caucuses Today.

Columbus, O., Dec. 17. — The Cox combination is certain to go through in the organization of the two branches of the general assembly at caucuses this afternoon. When the governor-elect arrived and held a cabinet meeting, the same comprising members of his official family, and the opposition got wind of the strength of the friends of Mr. Cox, the opposition melted. One by one, candidates who have indicated their purpose to fight, stepped aside.

When the Democrats of the house convened, Charles L. Swain of Cincinnati was selected for speaker and John R. Cassidy of Bellefontaine was named for clerk of the house.

For sergeant-at-arms William Mel-ching of Wapakoneta has the call.
Mr. Swain promised to be fair in naming committees.

Senator William Green of Coshocton was named president pro tem. and W. V. Goshorn of Galion clerk of the senate. William Meinecke of Cincinnati will be sergeant-at-arms. Minor places in both houses will be left to a committee on employes and retrenchment instead of being decided by the legislative caucus.

A dispatch from Cincinnati indicates that Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow,

JOHN R. CASSIDY

the House of Representatives.

representative-elect, will oppose the Cox plan for a license law.

In the senate will be named the committee on committees. This committee and the speakership candidate will name speedily the standing committees, so that advance work can be done in shaping bills for early passage.

Charter Petition Started.
Akron, O., Dec. 17.—Petitions asking that a new charter election be called to name a commission of 15 men to select a new form of government for Akron, were placed in circulation in this city.

BAKER'S DOZEN MAKE ESCAPE

Two More Lads Sneak Off, Making
Thirteen In Two Days.

ONLY TWO ARE CAPTURED

Major Gerlach Not of the Opinion
That the Abolition of Corporal Punishment Had Been an Incentive For the Boys to Run Away—Youths Take Advantage of Changes at the Institution.

Lancaster, O., Dec. 17.—Two boys, Frank Stolsalski, 17, of Toledo, and Fred Lawrence, 17, of Cincinnati, ran away from the Boys' Industrial school.
The escapes of these two, in addition to the 11 boys who fled Sunday night, makes a total of 13 getaways in two days.

Three months ago the institution abolished the steam whistle alarm, which had been used for years to notify farmers of escapes. When two other boys took French leave a new task was taken by officials and information concerning the escape promptly was telephoned about the vicinity.

Those who fled lived at Highland cottage. They left their room on the pretext that they were going to get a drink in the basement. Instead of quenching their thirst, the boys pried a screen off a basement window and disappeared.

Only two of the 13 have been captured. Officers from the institution were searching in South Columbus for six of the 11 who escaped. The six had been seen in that section of Columbus. James Tarantino of Cleveland, one of the 11, was captured in High street in Columbus by an officer of the institution. John Kebort of Cleveland, who escaped Sunday, was caught near Lancaster.

Just before the last two getaways were known, Major Gerlach said that he did not believe that the abolition of corporal punishment had been an incentive for the boys to run away.

Nine of the boys who escaped Sunday are: Charles Eater and Carl Nelson.

HOPE GLEAMS FAINTLY THRU COURT RULING

New York
Central Files Its
Answer

Denies Intention to Violate Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

Columbus, O., Dec. 17. — Vigorous denials of any intention on the part of the New York Central system to violate the Sherman anti-trust law by a restraint of trade were set forth by the representatives of that company, who appeared before the public utilities commission in answer to a protest filed last Friday against the issuing of $24,000,000 equipment trust certificates. The added equipment, they declared, is needed imperatively, and must be secured at once to prevent an existing car shortage from becoming damaging to both the roads and the shippers.

Car shortages, similar to those investigated by the commission on other Ohio lines, were said to have begun early in August and to have steadily increased as the winter shipments grew. All divisions are affected, it was pointed out, and the new equipment will be distributed where experience shows it is required.

In his arguments in behalf of the protesting stockholders, Attorney Hodge maintained that the New York Central system as at present controlled constitutes a violation of the Sherman act, and declared that the subsidiary roads should not be forced, against their will, to subscribe to the obligations of the company as a whole.

The commissioners have taken the testimony of both sides under advisement, but they will be unable to reach a decision for several weeks.

Wickersham on Anthracite Ruling of the Supreme Court.

PARTIAL VICTORY HELD WON

Independent Producers in the Anthracite Field Released by the Decision and Will Again Enter the Competitive Markets—Other Features of the Ruling Disappointing to the Government.

Washington, Dec. 17.—In the partial victory achieved by the government in the supreme court decision in the long pending anthracite cases, Attorney General Wickersham foresees the destruction of the combination that now controls the price of hard coal and a distinct measure of relief for the consuming public. This will be accomplished through the features of the decision which hold that the Temple Iron company is an unlawful combination in restraint of trade and that the so-called "65 per cent" contracts contravene the Sherman anti-trust law.

Through these two means the anthracite roads perpetually controlled practically the output of the independent producers, who under this decision will again enter the competitive markets, releasing about one-fourth of the total production from the grasp of the combination.

As to other features of the decision there was manifest disappointment on the part of the government's law office. The court held with the circuit court of the eastern district of Pennsylvania that the general combination of conspiracy alleged against the railroads and others had not been proved.
It refused to decree the dissolution of the coal-carrying roads from their coal-producing company, and it also declined to grant the prayer of the government's bill that the Erie railroad be required to surrender its stock control over the New York, Susquehanna & Western, and that the Philadelphia & Reading likewise be obliged to give up its control over the Central of New Jersey and the Lehigh Valley.

Governor
Wilson's
Plans

Expects to Confer With National Leaders of His Party.

Princeton, Dec. 17.—President-elect
Wilson has settled down to business.
Business for him means the direction of legislation in his own commonwealth of New Jersey to the end that the program of reform to which he pledged himself when he was elected governor may be carried out.

From time to time he expects to confer with the national leaders of his party. He has already written Mr. Bryan that he will see him, although no date for the meeting has been set. National Chairman Mc-Combs has been looking over the ground and an early conference between him and the president elect is expected as a matter of course. No selections for the cabinet have been made, according to Governor Wilson, and will not be for some time.

Hotel Register In Court.

New York, Dec. 17.—A register of the Raleigh hotel, Washington, D. C., will figure prominently in the divorce suit of Edward Dudley, the wealthy Camden lawyer, who is suing his wife, Mrs. Marie Mulock Dudley, when the trial is resumed in Jersey City on Jan. 9, so the latter's counsel,
James D. Carpenter, Jr., told Vice Chancellor Stevenson. The register shows that on April 13, 14 and 15, 1905, "Louis Creighton and wife" were guests at the hotel. Mrs. Dudley alleges that entry to be made in the handwriting of her husband.

Six Dead, Four Missing and Six Hurt In Crossing Disaster.

Ashtabula, O., Dec. 17.—Six persons are known to have been killed and six were injured when a Lake Shore coal train crashed into a streetcar at the Center street crossing. The train, consisting of 20 heavily loaded coal cars, plowed through the streetcar and plied up hundreds of tons of coal on top of the wreckage. The wrecker and a large force of shovelers are working on the pile and it is expected that several more bodies will be found.

The known dead: Miss Laura Leap-hart, 20, this city; Mrs. W. H. Cook, 45, this city; Mrs. George Kilton, 38, this city; Mrs. Frank C. Bartlett, this city; Mrs. Emma P. Espy of Willoughby; one unidentified woman.
Ralph Cluff is believed to be fatally injured.

The missing: Mr. and Mrs. David Stowe; Mrs. Eva Pancoast and 12-year-old daughter; D. E. O'Connor, engineer; O. E. Hirschberger, fireman.

Zanesville, O., Dec. 17.—The state board of health will now have an opportunity to institute a test case against Zanesville councilmen, as the $363,000 bond issue for a filtration system failed to pass council after the third reading.

NEW LANDLORD FOR THE CHERRY HOTEL

Mr. Howard Griffis Makes Purchase of Mr. A. P. Lynch's Interests and Will Assume Management of Popular Hostelry Sunday Morning, December 22. Changes Will Be Made Later.

Negotiations were closed Monday whereby Mr. Howard Griffis secures possession of the Cherry hotel, Mr. A. P. Lynch selling his interests to Mr. Griffis and will move to the south where he will spend the winter. Mr. Griffis will take charge of the hotel Sunday morning.

Mr. Lynch, who has successfully conducted the Cherry hotel during the past three years, is recognized as one of the best hotel men in the state, and his hostelry has been a popular place with the traveling public.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will spend the winter in the south, after which he will probably take up the hotel business in some Ohio city.

Mr. Griffis has been in Hattiesburg, Miss., for some two years, where he has been prospering as owner of a large wholesale ice cream industry.

Mr. Griffis has had considerable experience in conducting a hotel, and for several years managed the Cherry. He is a son-in-law of Dr. J. F. Dennis, owner of the Cherry hotel.

Some radical changes will be made in the hotel as soon as the new addition is completed, the reading and writing room being changed to the new addition, a large passageway being cut between the present lobby and the first floor room of the addition.

In order that a fourth story may be added to the entire building, the new addition has been built four stories 'n height, and will be equipped with an electric elevator.

"Little Miss Susan" which will be the offering at the Empire theater Saturday, December 21, was built expressly to entertain. The author had no pet theory to expound, no ax to grind, no particular star to fit nor any of the other many conditions that are imposed on authors too often and which are such a handicap to successful playwriting; he was entirely free to use his best efforts to build a play that would please and he has succeeded beyond all expectations. While there are serious moments during the unfolding of the plot as well as intensely exciting scenes, the purport of the entire performance is to create laughter and it does this in large quantities. It is the universal opinion of all who have witnessed a performance, that "Little Miss Susan" is the most entertaining play of the year.

Mixed It Up Both Arrested

As the result of a squabble which ended in a set-to, Etta Bass filed an affidavit against Nina Brandon, Tuesday, charging her with disorderly conduct, and upon a plea of guilty being returned, the Brandon woman was fined $25 and the costs, $20 being suspended pending good behavior. After the fine was assessed she filed an affidavit against Etta Bass, charging assault, and the case was set for hearing Tuesday afternoon.

Valuation Of Express Companies

The valuation of the three express companies doing business in Fayette county is $9,000, or $150 less than the valuation as fixed by the tax commission last January.

The valuation of the Adams Express Company in this county is $1540, and is divided up with $1490 in Washington and $50 in Selden.

The United States Express company has six offices in this county, and the property at each place is valued as follows: Washington, $4,780; Bloomingburg, $420; Cooks, $80; Madison Mills $110; Octa, $130; Milledgeville $330, a total of $5850, an increase of $30 over last year.

The American Express has three offices, valued as follows: Washington, $1010; Jeffersonville, $500; Good Hope, $100. This is a decrease of $390 over last year's valuations.

Files Action For Divorce

In a petition making various sensational accusations against her husband, Mrs. Tillie Thompson has brought action in Common Pleas court for divorce from Myers H. Thompson, of Madison Mills.

The couple were married in Columbus, June 28, 1910, according to the petition, and in addition to certain statutory charges in which the name of a Madison Mills woman is mentioned, Mrs. Thompson accuses her husband of extreme cruelty, and charges that on June 10, 1912, he struck her with his fist, and in July 1911, he struck her on the head with a lamp, inflicting a bad wound.

The plaintiff further accuses the defendant of failure to provide. She asks divorce, alimony and restoration to her maiden name. A restraining order, requested in the petition, was granted, and prevents the defendant from disposing of certain property.

ALARMING CONDITION OF THE RURAL CHURCH.

Throughout the state the condition of the majority of the country churches is really alarming, and already large numbers of them have been forced to close their doors forever as places of worship.

And it is not necessary to go outside of Fayette county to find rural churches which have long been ailing, and are now upon the point of being closed, probably never more to open as churches. But taken as a whole, Fayette's rural churches are in much better condition than those of the majority of sister counties in the state.

That the country church is ailing has long been recognized by those in a position to know the facts. A convincing demonstration of this has been furnished by the work of the Ohio Rural Life Survey this past summer. This survey has brought out the fact that in the state as a whole hardly one country church in four is doing more than holding its own, while over half of all the country churches are losing ground more or less rapidly. It is estimated that there are more than 800 abandoned churches in the state.

This condition has given rise to much speculation. The causes of it, however, do not seem to be far to seek. The man who works a farm by not going near it save at frequent intervals is not liable to realize very heavily upon it. Absentee landlordism is recognized to be one of the chief causes of agricultural decline. A church is not easier to work than a farm. It does not respond any more readily to the absent treatment.

In ten of the counties there were found to be in all 394 open country churches. These ten counties included several of the best and several of the poorest counties in the state and taken as a whole may be considered fairly representative. Of these 394 churches, 69 have resident ministers, 281 have non-resident ministers, 44 were last summer, without ministers. The proportion of farms having absentee landlords was never known to be as high as this. As a matter of fact the showing of the churches in this respect is not as good as the figures given above would seem to indicate. Of these 69 ministers who happen to live near their churches 29 also have charge of from one to four other churches each. There are about 20 others who though they have but one church each, are ministers on Sundays only. During the week they are blacksmiths or jewelers or farmers. This leaves just twenty churches which have resident ministers serving them on full time. In these ten counties, then, for every church in the open country which has a resident minister on full time there are nineteen which have not. Ninety-six townships in these counties, comprising nearly 4000 square miles, are without a resident minister in the country districts.

Poetry For Today

HOW SHE SHOPPED.

She wandered down the center aisle,
Whence all but her had fled;
The lamp that lighted up her smile
Was not the kind, she said.

She halted at another booth;
There costly glass held sway.
She scorned the goblets, for, in truth,
They would not match her tray!

At every counter on the route,
From basement to the top,
She found the things that wouldn't suit,
But failed to find a mop.

She lingered at the silk display
From 1 o'clock till 4,
Then smilingly she tripped away
To seek another floor.

From 4 till 5 she hung about
The petticoats on sale;
Then she recalled that, past a doubt,
She ought to buy a veil.

"But they were quite too dear," she said;

"I'll wait till after Lent!"

'Twas then she bought a spool of thread,

And had it charged and sent.

Section "Gang" Reduced to One

Following a new order issued by the D. T. & I. Monday the local section crew which usually consists of three or four men, was reduced to one man who will work eight hours each day.

It is said the reduction of section crews has been general, and that the reason for the reduction is to bring the expenses of the road down to the lowest possible figure in order that a good report may be made just before the sale of the road in February.

How long the order will be in effect is not known, but owing to the condition of the road it is thought the full number will be recruited probably even before the sale of the road.

Let Us Wage a Relentless War Against Consumption

By HENRY T. HUNT, Mayor of Cincinnati

LET US WAGE A RELENTLESS WAR AGAINST CONSUMPTION. THE DISEASE IS A MENACE THAT THREATENS TO FILL OUR PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS WITH WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

Tuberculosis annually reaps a toll of nearly one thousand lives in Cincinnati alone. Thousands of others are victims of the dread disease, and many of them will shortly be added to the death list.

In the United States, statistics show, the annual deaths from consumption number two hundred thousand. There are said to be at least ONE MILLION PEOPLE SUFFERING FROM THE DISEASE. The economic loss is estimated at more than five hundred million dollars a year in loss of life and labor to the country.

It devastates whole families. Public institutions which have become filled with widows and orphans would not be necessary were the proper preventive means taken against the dreaded white plague. It will therefore be seen that the people of the United States have an important task before them. EVERY MEANS IN OUR POWER SHOULD BE UTILIZED IN ERADICATING THIS DREAD DISEASE.

Bad living and working conditions, especially impure air, darkness, dirt and dust, are among the principal causes of the disease. To wage a relentless war upon the disease and upon the conditions making for the disease is one of the most important functions our people have before them today.

Breaks Pardon Records

Arkansas Governor Would Wipe Out Convict Lease System.

Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 17.—Governor Donaghey smashed all pardon records by liberating 316 state convicts and 44 county prisoners. At the same time he made public a message, which he will submit to the legislature next month, giving his reasons for granting the pardons. He says he has always been opposed to the convict lease system practiced in Arkansas and has made repeated efforts to induce the legislature to repeal the law. He charges that convicts are hired to contractors who submit them to others for the sole purpose of enriching themselves; that the men are often treated inhumanly and given prison terms far in excess of their deserts.

Governor Donaghey says he knows of no better way to get the legislature to give the matter attention than by almost emptying the prison.

SUFFRAGETS WILL TALK THE OLD YEAR OUT.

New York, Dec. 17.—The women's suffrage party is planning to wind up the banner year of 1912 with a great onslaught of oratory and messages. In fact, they have determined to talk the old year out. In every one of the 63 assembly districts of Greater New York they will hold street meetings as near as possible to the house of the assemblyman. A committee will call on the assemblyman—if he can be found—to remind him of the suffrage bill about to come up before the legislature next session.

Divorces Copper King Husband

Mrs. Heinze Receives Heavy Alimony and Custody of Child.

Newburg, N. Y., Dec. 17.—The second highest alimony ever recorded in New York state was allowed Mrs. Bernice C. Heinze of New York city, when Justice Tompkins of the supreme court granted her a decree of divorce from her husband, Fritz Augustus Heinze, commonly referred to as the former "copper king." Under the provisions of the decree he is to give his wife $1,000 a month alimony and is to pay the rent of her apartments in the Dorlin, $233 a month, until the lease expires, in about two or three years. Mrs. Heinze, who alleged infidelity in her petition, also receives the custody of the couple's only child, F. Augustus, Jr., born Dec. 6, 1911, and the father is directed to pay for the lad's education after he reaches the age of five years.

BROUGHT BACK FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

Deputy Sheriff Nelson went to Marysville, Union county, Monday to arrest and bring back Don Greer, a former resident of the Milledgeville neighborhood.

A warrant for his arrest was issued upon order of Probate Judge Patton, charging contempt of court in failing to pay to Mrs. Greer the temporary alimony allowed by the court.

Mrs. Greer brought suit for divorce and temporary alimony during the time the suit was pending. $25 in cash and $4 per week was granted her by the court, and upon the failure of the defendant to pay the amount, the warrant was issued.

Greer gave bond and his hearing was fixed for the first Monday in January. He then returned to Union county where he has charge of a gang of men who are at work upon a large county ditch near Marysville.

FUNERAL OF MRS. D. T. VEAIL.

The funeral services of Mrs. D. T. Veail were very largely attended Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. Friends, neighbors and fraternal associates mourned in sincere sorrow as the flower covered casket was borne down the aisle to the plaintive music Mrs. B. F. Davis evoked from the organ.

Most impressive were the services, conducted by Royal chapter No. 29, O. E. S., and Rev. W. I. Campbell, the officiating minister. The pastor was deeply sympathetic in his opening services and in the remarks of tribute to the devoted wife and mother, the noble Christian woman who has crossed the bar, which followed the memoir.

The beautiful burial ritual of the Order of Eastern Star was an important part of the service conducted by Worthy Matron, Mrs. Annetta Rowe, Worthy Patron Mr. W. Slagle and other officers of Royal Chapter.

The music added unusual tenderness and beauty. A quartet, Mesdames Wert Shoop, Arthur Brugett, Messrs. Wert Shoop and R. R. Kibler, Mrs. Davis accompanist, sang "Some Time We'll Understand," and "Asleep in Jesus" and "Nearer My God to Thee" in connection with the O. E. S. ritual.

Miss Edith Gardner sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" as a solo. The large concourse of friends took a last farewell of the quiet sleeper as they left the church and a long line of carriages accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery for the burial.

Acting as pall-bearers were Messrs. A. T. Baldwin, Jess Blackmer, Scott Hopkins, Miller Minter, Joe Gillespie, Dr. G. S. Hodson.

The floral remembrances were in great number.

Besides many beautiful flowers from friends and neighbors there were "The Floral Star" from Royal Chapter No. 29, O. E. S., a spray of calla lilies from Washington Temple No. 380, Pythian Sisters; a spray of white roses from the ladies of The Mite Society, all of which Mrs. Veail was a most interested member; a spray of white roses from the city council; spray of pink and white roses from The Midland National bank; carnations from Miss Gertrude Veail's Sunday school class and a basket of roses from Mrs. Maggie Hopkins' Sunday school class.

Those attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Veail, Miss Elsie Stitt and Mr. Joe McCoy, Chillicothe; Mrs. Eliza McCoy, Mrs. Ed Daringer and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Dundon, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Veail, Ashville; Mrs. Mary Shortridge, Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. ## Write Ideas For Moving Picture 'Plays!'

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25 OR MORE WEEKLY

We Will Show You How

If you have ideas...if you can THINK...we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays are located in or near NEW YORK CITY. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our SALES DEPARTMENT has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure.

You Will Earn $100 Monthly For Spare Time Work.

FREE Send your name and address at once for free copy of our illustrated book. "MOVING PICTURE PLAYWRITING."

Don't hesitate. Don't argue. Write NOW and learn just what this new profession may mean for you and your future.

MISSPELLED WORD CONTEST NOW ON

Beginning with this issue of The Herald and continuing for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, there will be one word in the advertisements of the paper misspelled purposely.

For the purpose of stimulating the reading of advertisements, which at this time are carrying the greatest messages of the year, we have decided to give two admission tickets to The Empire Opera House, each evening, which will entitle the lucky ones to hear "Little Miss Susan" at The Empire Saturday night, Dec. 21st.

Find the word purposely misspelled, if you can, and send in your answer by mail at once.

The name of the winner of today's contest will be published tomorrow. Little Miss Susan is one of the best attractions that Manager Daje has been able to secure in a long time, and is one of the masterpieces of the famous Fred Raymond, who won renown in "The Missouri Girl."

The first correct answer to reach us after The Herald has left the press will be awarded two tickets each evening.

All employees and others connected with The Herald are barred.

Address all letters by mail to Little Miss Susan Editor, Washington Daily Herald.

Prominent Stockmen Visit Fayette County

From states far apart, two prominent stockmen visited Springhill farm yesterday to look at the brood sow herd, which Mr. H. K. Stewart will offer at his annual brood sow sale, booked for February 8th. The visitors were S. D. Hengst, of Nashville, Tenn., and Mr. G. C. Morgan, of Pawpaw, Mich., expert hog judges who were unstinted in their praise of Mr. Stewart's pedigree herd. This annual sale of brood sows draws stockmen from all over the United States, but this year they are on the ground early.

A Christmas Present for the Whole Family

"FROM Mother to Father;" "From Father to Mother;" "From the Children to Mother and Father;" no matter how the tag reads, the whole family will appreciate this gift.

Mother will like it because it's such a gentlemanly stove to have 'round the house; no dirt, no smoke, no puffing—ever.

Pa will be tickled to see what a small appetite it has; once or twice a day is often enough to feed it, and soft coal is its favorite food.

Of course, Willie will be strong for it; the stove's wonderful fire-keeping qualities will save him a good many trips to the coal-bin, and a whole lot of luggin' ashes, too.

Everybody will admire the looks of the stove; its strong, sturdy form, set off by a profusion of rich nickel trimmings, will attract attention in any household.

So what better gift could you think of for this Christmas than the

Estate Oak

—what other article could bring so much happiness, and comfort, and cheerfulness into your home?

Why not plan it as a surprise on the rest of the folks—slip it in while they're sleeping—let it greet them on Christmas morn? Then watch their faces light up—listen to their exclamations of pleasure—and enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that your gift will be a source of daily delight for years.

Only a very few more shopping days left; if you want an Estate Oak in time for Christmas, better see us without delay.

Fine Vegetables From Sunny South

Eulless Reeder, living on Leesburg avenue is in receipt of a large box of choice vegetables grown by his brother, M. C. Reeder, who has been making his home near Jacksonville, Florida, for the past year.

The box contained huge potatoes less than 90 days old, and choice lettuce, cabbage and beets, the like of which can only be grown on the rich sandy soil of the Florida garden lands.

The vegetables were from the second crop on the same lands this year.

Few spots in the United States are so well adapted to the growing of vegetables and all garden truck as the neighborhood from whence the vegetables came. Mr. Reeder is doing exceptionally well in his sunny southern home.

Bliss College Team Coming

Tuesday evening, December 31st, the representative team of the Y. M. C. A. and the Bliss College team will contest for basket ball honors at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

The Bliss college team is a good one but the local boys are planning to carry them off their feet, and have been practicing to that end until they will be very proficient in the game by the time the visitors arrive.

The representative team will be picked from among eight players: Mobley, Thompson, Peterson, Taylor, Townsley, Baughn, Kier and Thornton.

"A MODERN EVE."

After a run of 250 performances in Chicago, Mort H. Singer's Berlin musical comedy, "A Modern Eve" will be at the Hartman theater, Columbus, four days, beginning December 25th, with matinees Christmas day and the following Saturday.

Among the scenes of "A Modern Eve" are the beautiful wedding scene in which the principals and chorus appear in elaborate costumes, the alluring "Siren" number, the mirth provoking debate in which the women try to prove (or perhaps they do prove it) their superiority over men and the satirical divorce scene.

The cast includes Frank Deshon, the clever comedian, Georgia Drew Mendum, who has been in the cast since the premiere without missing a performance, Ruth Peebles, Bertie Beaumont, William Kent, Carl Stall and Lee Johnstone.

Little Gunman Slain

Body Found by Policeman While Lone Fiddler Plays Gay Airs.

New York, Dec. 17.—Michele Morrell sat in the front part of Glosue Gallucci's coffee shop playing a tune upon Gallucci's violin. Of a sudden the street door had rattled open and on the threshold stood Policeman George L. Smith. He flung past the fiddler to pull open the door to Gallucci's rear room. In the farther corner, sprawled under the stove, lay the body of a man who had been shot through the temple. It was Anello Frisco, a sleek, stubby little lame gunman, whose name had long made the children of Harlem's Italy shiver. When Smith confronted the fiddler he protested he was sorry to learn that Frisco was dead, but he knew nothing of the shooting.

Later John Russamane, the nephew of Gallucci, and Proprietor Gallucci himself walked into the offices of Coroner Mellenstein, where, a bit boastfully, Russamane said that he had killed Frisco. The men claimed that Frisco was killed when he demanded money at the point of a gun.
